After December 1 These Brokers Will Be Excluded by Stock Exchange.

New York, November 29.—Under a rule promulgated to day by the Stock Exchange, so-called put and call brokers, who for years have made the foyer of the exchange their trading headquarters, practically will be barred from that room after December 1. The new rule provides that persons who are not members of the exchange will be permitted to enter the foyer only for interviews with members, and must retire as soon as this business is concluded.

Although used as a smoking room for exchange members, there are two stock tickers in the foyer, and they have been utilized by the put and call traders. Offensive actions by some of these brokers are said to have caused the closing of the room to them.
